TCA is not staffed to handle students with significant learning disabilities or behavior problems. In your child’s best interest, please be candid when answering the following questions. If any of the following questions are checked, please use a separate sheet of paper to fully explain. If the answer is ‘no’, just leave unchecked. Further elaboration on your answers may take place during your interview.

Has your child ever received services for:

- Speech and/or Occupational Therapy
- Ever been suspended or expelled from school?
- Ever been examined or treated for by a counselor/doctor/psychiatrist for hyper-activity or attention deficit disorder?
- Ever suspected or been told your child might have dyslexia?
- Ever been examined or treated for by a counselor/doctor/psychiatrist for any type of behavioral, social or mental problems?
- Any physical, emotional or attention problems that require special medication or limited participation in certain activities?
- Any other unusual health problem of which the school should be aware?

Failure to disclose all academic, social/ emotional or discipline information for the student may result in automatic denial. Upon acceptance, the applicant may not be able to continue as a student of TCA, if parents are not forthcoming with all applicable information. Answering “yes” to any of the above does not preclude the student from enrollment. Our goal is to assure our ability to meet your student’s need.
